

The APSS Speakers Bureau

Librarians, schools, businesses, association meeting planners and others are always looking for experienced, qualified speakers who are knowledgeable on a variety of topics. That is why we created the APSS Speakers Bureau. It can connect these people with qualified APSS members who can speak on the key issues and important subjects. From keynotes, breakouts, panels and training seminars to informal luncheons and presentations, APSS can connect you with people who can hire you.

How the APSS Speakers Bureau works

APSS will place your photo and description on the speakers bureau page on our website. We will contact people who can coordinate a speaking opportunity for you and direct them to it. They will contact you directly. APSS will also place your information in the Premium Book Company's speakers bureau. In it, 60,000 professional sales people can arrange a speaking event for you. When that occurs, they will communicate with Brian Jud who will put you in touch with the meeting planner for you to negotiate the details and your fee.

For an additional fee, APSS can blitz cities on your behalf, contacting meeting planners, librarians and schools to contact you about speaking engagements.

Requirements

We can only work with APSS members who are experienced speakers. If you are a member of the Nation Speakers Association, Toastmasters or can demonstrate considerable speaking experience, you are eligible for this program.

What to send

Email to Brian Jud: summary of your speaking skills, complete contact information, a high-resolution photo (300 dpi or greater) of a headshot or you in action, plus a 150- 200-word description of your topic. Include your APSS membership number.
